Bremer Whyte Brown & O'Meara Newport Beach

Keith G. Bremer, Founding Partner

Nicole Whyte, Founding Partner

Bremer and Whyte launched their full-service A/E-rated law firm in 1997. Bremer has extensive experience in all aspects of civil litigation, including general business and corporate, construction defect, municipal defense, personal injury and general liability. Prior to forming Bremer White Brown & O'Meara in 1997, he was managing partner and lead trial counsel at Smith, Smith & King's Riverside office, a 37-attorney general practice law firm. He is a frequent consultant to the insurance industry regarding proposed legislation and a regularly featured speaker at legal seminars across the U.S.

Whyte attended law school in her native South Africa, where she served as state prosecutor handling criminal trials, and later gained civil litigation experience at a general practice firm. She immigrated to the U.S. in 1991 and was admitted to the California State Bar in the same year, and to the Nevada State Bar in 2000. Whyte focuses on the areas of family law, complex civil litigation, trucking law and insurance defense and has handled hundreds of complex multi-million dollar lawsuits. She has also published extensively in the field of Family Law, and lectured to various organizations on her other specialty areas.
